CONSIGNEE'S

Dry Goods Auction Sale.

I am instructed to sell at Public Auction an Extensive Shipment of Goods from one of New York's largest jobbing houses. The goods, amounting to over $15,000, were intended for a firm in Portland, Maine, but through an error in the bill of lading were forwarded to Portland, Oregon. The stock consists mainly of

DRY, FANCY AND FURNISHING GOODS,

And will, by order of the house, be sold without reserve. This is the only opportunity in the history of Oregon ever offered to dealers to secure a regular line of goods at their own price.

TERMS OF SALE:
All bills of less than $100 are not cash. $100 and over, subject to 4 per cent. discount, or three months' note with good endorsement.

The corner store in Reid's new block, cor. First and Pine, has been secured for this Attractive Trade Sale, which will begin

Monday, Feb. 11, at 10 A. M.

T. J. O'CONNOR, Auctioneer.
